MISSION VIEJO

Keeping the California Promise Week of August 12, 2006

The Patriot Post Founders' Quote Daily

"A popular Government, without popular information, or the means of acquiring it, is but a Prologue to a Farce or a Tragedy; or, perhaps both. Knowledge will forever govern ignorance: And a people who mean to be their own Governors, must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives." -- James Madison (letter to W.T. Barry, 4 August 1822) Reference: Letters and other Writings of James Madison, vol. 3 (276)

Reference: George Washington: A Collection, W.B. Allen, ed. (522)Founders' Quote Daily is a service of The Patriot Post, the most widely read conservative journal on the Internet. If you would like to receive Founders Quote Daily, and this highly acclaimed Digest of news, policy and opinion delivered FREE by e-mail to your inbox, link to: http://PatriotPost.US/subscribe/

CARL SCHULTHESS, EDITOR IN CHIEF carl.s@cox.net DALE TYLER, PUBLISHER edt@missionviejoca.org KATHY MIRAMONTES, CONTENT/DESIGN MANAGER katmiris@cox.net

HIGH COST OF WEAK LEADERS BY BO KLEIN

Once again, the city of San Juan Capistrano has done its job protecting the interests of its citizens instead of advancing the personal interest and gains of its leaders.

The issue I refer to is San Juan Capistrano's recent approval of a resolution that would prohibit a new access road from the ranch development to a connection of the 73 Toll Road (San Joaquin Hills State Route 73). As a result, San Juan Capistrano will carry no burden of the additional traffic load within its city limits. All of the anticipated traffic congestion from development of the proposed ranch plan will be directed to Mission Viejo for eternity or as long as it matters.

What does matter is that people like Council Members Lance MacLean and Trish Kelley wholeheartedly approved the ranch plan with its impact of a designed gridlock of our town. San Juan Capistrano, a much smaller town in resources and population, will suffer no hardship whatsoever from new development. Our leadership in Mission Viejo put our city into a position of being completely dominated by the ranch and the toll road board. Both the ranch and the toll road agency are known to produce heavy political donors from their affiliates, and you can bet both MacLean and Kelley have been at the doorstep of the moneybag holders.

The city of San Juan Capistrano practically boasts about its actions, and its residents take pride during public comments in how they are shifting the burden to Mission Viejo. This latest resolution, though not needed because no access relief road is budgeted by the county or toll road board, was passed as a coup d'état to make sure such a future proposal for a new road won't be considered.

One should note that the San Juan Capistrano City Council and some of the challenging candidates for its city seats read like a roster of ranch hands from the ranch itself. They proudly boast of being associated with the ranch in one way or another. You can expect most of their council candidate fundraisers will be held at the El Adobe Restaurant, owned by ranch patriarch Dick O'Neill.

I have no issues with the ranch or its people. I have no issues with the politicians in San Juan Capistriano protecting the best interests of their voters. I have a problem, however, with my elected officials in Mission Viejo who lack guts, intelligence, integrity, commitment and duty to to the same for our residents. Our town had its beginning with the ranch. That's ancient history, but ties to the land- owner have never been cut. Our council mem- bers didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kolley have indeed left their "mark in hietory" or Mission Viejo for all of eternity. Norther One Bitres THE DUST Ausuro 17, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of pommetings laws, alleged nepotim, a law- suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a truste of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a truste of the district's controversial superintendent, or the district's controversial superintendent, or	(Continued from page 1)	August 7, 2006 (Nevermind clicking just read on) elected officials in Mission Viejo who lack guts to the same for our residents. Our town had its beginning with the ranch. That's ancient history, but lies to the land-owner have never been cut. Our council members didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kolley have indeed left their "mark in hietory" on Mileolo Hyper bar Mileolo	Capistrano protecting the best interests of their	August 7, 2006 (Never lining clicking just redu on)

 Intelligence, integrity, commitment and duty to do the same for our residents. Our town had its beginning with the ranch. That's ancient history, but ties to the land-owner have never been cut. Our council members didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLeam & Kolley have Indeed left their "mark in hietory" on Miseion Viejo for all of teering. ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST August 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of pen meetings laws, alleged nepoting, alaws suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendem, alaws usit by opponents, the pending departure of the GC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the attonal, state and county averages, but continually achieve ever increasing test. Gubstrato Unified School Districts, not only in California but controversial superintendem, alaws and the best education possible for mark in highest quality educators and support staff. By any test measure, our schools' clauses the area circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Corrently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require		Editor
 Our town had its beginning with the ranch. That's ancient history, but ties to the landowner have never been cut. Our council members didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kelley have Indeed left: their "mark in history" on Miesion Viejo. for all of eternity MANCHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DUWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law. fuel district's controversial superintendent, or the district	intelligence, integrity, commitment and duty to
That's ancient history, but ties to the land- owner have never been cut. Our council mem- bers didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kelley have Indeed left: their "mark in hietory" on Miesoin Viejo for all of eternity MANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST August 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law- sult by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the controversial superintendent, or the district's controversial superintendent, or the district'		Dear Editor:
 where have never been cut. Our council members didn't and don't have the leadership to defend and represent the city of Mission Viejo. The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kalley have indeed left their "mark in hietory" on Mieeion Viejo for all of etermity. ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a lawstit by opponents, the pending departure of the CGOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that the would to seek trait and spart the district's controversial superintendent, or the GC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the rational, state and county averages, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the fait require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with refirst grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years. That her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the next level. Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the next level. Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the next level. Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the next level. Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the next level. Click here tog to the Total Buzz file on CUSD in the action s, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to t		It is with a great deal of mixed emotion that I
 The ranch has continued to run over our city, and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kolley have Indeed left their "mark in history" on Mieston Viejo for all of eternity ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law, suit by opponents, the pending departure of the districts controversial superintendent, or the districts controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the districts controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OF GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district suce 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with first frequences." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news announcing the decision. Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news announcing the decision. Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD including links to a Trustees this November. When first elected to the CUSD Board in 1988, 1 believed that good public schools were the cornerstone of a free, democratic society. I still do I knew then, as I know now, that the futures of our nation, our communities and our children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our schools' classrooms. I wanted the best education possible for my children are determined in our class on of the finest space of the one and continues to also in the nation. CUSD has teachers and principals second to none and continues to attract and retain the highest quality educators and support staff. By any test measure, our school bistrict ince 1988, announced today that she would no and San Juan Capistrano has taken advantage of our council's weakness. MacLean & Kelley have indeed left: their "mark in history" on Milesion Yiejo for all of eternity. ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a lawsuit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the aditud, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the three are chroumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
 MacLean & Kelley have Indeed left: their "mark in hietory" on Miseion Yiejo for all of stormity ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST August 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a lawsuit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." Lon't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news sory. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. 		When first destad to the OUOD Desure in 4000
MacLean & Kelley have indeed left their "mark in hietory" on Mieselon Viejo for all of eternity ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law- suit by opponents, the pending departure of the OC GOP's recommendation against endors, ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reading. I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons."	of our council's weakness.
 "mark in history" on Miseion Ylejo for all of eternity ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a laws suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the district's controversial superintendent, or the district's controversis district's c		nerstone of a free, democratic society. I still do.
ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law- suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the clapistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are cir- cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.	"mark in history"
ANOTHER ONE BITES THE DUST AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a law- suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are cir- cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
AUGUST 07, 2006 CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a laws suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the distric's controversial superintendent, or the GGOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are cir- cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investig- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
CUSD TRUSTEE TO STEP DOWN17 other trustees over the last 18 years.Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a laws suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are cir- cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention."17 other trustees over the last 18 years.I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons."17 other trustees over the last 18 years.Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.17 other trustees over the last 18 years.Usant to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a spe- cial part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want DOWN Dever mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a laws in the open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a laws is y opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a truste of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with effirst grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to seek Yore Nature in the next few months. Sut I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to seek Yore Store St challenges, is recognized as one of the finest school districts, not only in California but also in the nation. CUSD has teachers and principals second to none and continues to attract and retain the highest quality educators and support staff. By any test measure, our schools and our students not only perform above the national, state and county averages, but continually achieve ever increasing test scores. CUSD students graduate at a 96.5% rate and 92% - 94% of these graduates continue on at institutes of higher learning. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. 		Today, Canistrano Unified, despite many
 Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a lawsuit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endorsing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
 Never mind the enemies list, alleged abuse of open meetings laws, alleged nepotism, a lawsuit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endorsing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
 attract and retain the highest quality educators and support staff. By any test measure, our schools and our students not only perform above the national, state and county averages, but continually achieve ever increasing test scores. CUSD students graduate at a 96.5% rate and 92% - 94% of these graduates continue on at institutes of higher learning. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. 	Never mind the enemies list, alloged shuge of suit by opponents, the pending departure of the district's controversial superintendent, or the OC GOP's recommendation against endors- ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek re- election in November because "there are cir- cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.		attract and retain the highest quality educators the OC GOP's recommendation against endorsing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. 	suit by opponents, the pending departure of ing her. Crystal Kochendorder, a trustee of the Capistrano Unified School District since 1988, announced today that she would not seek reelection in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. but continually achieve ever increasing test scores. CUSD students graduates continue on at institutes of higher learning. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. My parents are experiencing serious health problems and my much anticipated first grandchild will arrive in the next few months. So it is the time in my life to pass the baton. There are honest, positive people in our community who believe in public education and who can take CUSD to the next level. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want rate and 92% - 94% of these graduates continue on at institutes of higher learning. currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.
 announcied today that she would not seek tere election in November because "there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. on at institutes of higher learning. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. My parents are experiencing serious health problems and my much anticipated first grandchild will arrive in the next few months. So it is the time in my life to pass the baton. There are honest, positive people in our community who believe in public education and who can take CUSD to the next level. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want 		• cumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention." I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. Currently there are circumstances in my personal life that require more of my attention. My parents are experiencing serious health problems and my much anticipated first grandchild will arrive in the next few months. So it is the time in my life to pass the baton. There are honest, positive people in our community who believe in public education and who can take CUSD to the next level. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want
 I don't want to belittle the serious health problems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. Sonal life that require more of my attention. My parents are experiencing serious health problems and my much anticipated first grandchild will arrive in the next few months. So it is the time in my life to pass the baton. There are honest, positive people in our community who believe in public education and who can take CUSD to the next level. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want
I don't want to belittle the serious health prob- lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.	more of my attention."
 lems of her parents, which she cites along with her first grandchild, who is due in a few months. But I can't help but think of all the abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want 	I don't want to belittle the serious health prob-	parents are experiencing serious health prob-
 time in my life to pass the baton. There are honest, positive people in our community who believe in public education and who can take CUSD to the next level. Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want 	lems of her parents, which she cites along with abrupt departures over the years that have been made for "family reasons." Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investigations into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a special part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. CUSD to the next level. I want to thank the students, parents, teachers, administrators, staff and community members who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a spe- cial part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.	been made for "family reasons."
including links to a couple Register investiga- tions into the district and a few other news story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision.	Click here to go to the Total Buzz file on CUSD, story. Click "Continue reading" below to see Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. who have encouraged me and supported me in my efforts through the years. You are all a spe- cial part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News announcing the decision. my efforts through the years. You are all a spe- cial part of my life and significant contributors to the success of our schools. I especially want		who have encouraged me and supported me in to the success of our schools. I especially want	Kochendorfer's letter to the Dana Point News
(Carting day and 2)	announcing the decision.
	Martin Wisckol	(Continued on page 3)

(Continued from page 2) to thank all of the Trustees I have worked with for their dedication to the well-being and education of all of the students in Capistrano Unified. Finally, I want thank my family for the sacrifices it has made over the last 18 years. Your love and support has meant the world to me.

Sincerely, Crystal Kochendorfer Vice President, Board of Trustees Capistrano Unified School District

Posted at August 7, 2006 12:36 PM http://www.thecapistranodispatch.com/

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SMALL BUSINESS PREVAILS

Great news! Thank you to everyone who wrote letters of support for Moxie Java in the Mission Foothill Marketplace, east of Marguerite on Los Alisos. Safeway and Starbucks pulled the proposed in-store Starbucks because of all the letters and actual customers taking a stand for the small business. "The Power of the People" worked! It was the right thing to do, and I am so happy with the outcome. Thanks for all the

Jill Hanoka Small-business owner Mission Viejo

WATCHING THE MARKET IN MISSION VIEJO

Some reports about home sales this summer have indicated the market is changing. One said prices are 6 percent higher and sales are down 29 percent from a year ago. By comparison, things have slowed down. Last summer, buyers had to act quickly or miss out because homes were selling so fast.

If homeowners have checked the comps lately on their homes, they should be ecstatic. People of average means are living in homes that cost nearly a million dollars. On the other hand, I know of sellers who sold last year because they thought the market had topped out. They're now renting until they can afford to get back in.

On the retail side, shoppers are happy to see entire shelves and departments marked down in a store. I have mixed emotions about this happening in Robinsons-May as the store is going to close. Going to The Shops in Mission Viejo is always fun, but it will take awhile to get used to the idea of Macy's moving into the Robinsons-May space.

Nadine Harder Mission Viejo

NEW LEADERS NEED OLD-FASHIONED INTEGRITY

The last-minute shuffle of candidates for school board in the Capo district has been amazing. With incumbent Crystal Kochendorfer's decision not to run, the November election becomes a lot more meaningful. CUSD incumbents in the past have often been unchallenged for reelection.

My hope for the election is for honest challengers to have a chance at defeating corrupt officials. The CUSD trustees have become so entrenched and well-funded, almost no one will spend the fortune it costs to run against them.

Several ethical newcomers have entered the race – the first step in setting things right at CUSD. It takes courage and money to run, and the day after the election will be no picnic even if good people win. I've observed the top administrators and their fawning groupies at board meetings. The corruption isn't limited to the trustees – many others are involved in FLEECING THE TAXPAYERS AND THEN LYING ABOUT IT.

Part of the culture of corruption has been the (Continued on page 4) (Continued from page 3) promotion of Supt. James Fleming's shills (employees or even PTA members getting cushy jobs) who have been willing to do the superintendent's dirty work. By contrast, those at the very bottom of CUSD's hierarchy – the teachers and students – are promoted for competence and achievement. How old-fashioned am I to expect top school officials to abide by the same standards as those at the bottom?

One who poses as a satisfied customer or an enthusiastic gambler to dupe bystanders into participating in a swindle.

Connie Lee Mission Viejo

OIL PRICE IMPACTS STREET MAINTENANCE

The recent run-up of oil prices has affected the cost of our street slurrying and asphalt resurfacing. Oil is the base product of asphalt and slurry. The rise in costs makes it important that our city officials begin to price the increases into the budget for oil-based products.

I would expect that all bids for street resurfacing and our ongoing slurry program have been continually going up in price over recent months. It would be reasonable to look at our street programs and increase the budgeted dollars for this critical infrastructure item.

To wait until later is only to defer and reduce our ability to maintain our streets. Some other cities have already increased their budgets considerably. I hope Mission

Viejo will stay ahead of the curve.

James Edward Woodin Mission Viejo

The Mission Viejo Community Foundation gave its first donation to the city, $227,500 in cash and in-kind services. The presentation was made in connection with the groundbreaking ceremony to expand the community center. City grants totaling $400,000 have been given to the foundation as startup money. At its inception, a spokesman said the foundation would raise $1 million for the community center expansion. According to the foundation a year later, $1 million is $600,000. The remaining $400,000 is the city's grant money, which it might get back. At its current rate of fundraising (actually, fund-lowering), the foundation might need another "startup" check from the city next year. Can we say...Ripoff

In a guest column in the Aug. 4 Saddleback paper, the foundation chairman uses terms like "leverage" and "investment" to describe the city's gift of $400,000. "Startup costs" instead of operational costs are mentioned without revealing the foundation director's salary of more than $9,000 a month. Donors giving $1,000 might consider that their "investment" will pay for the director's salary for a FEW days. By the way, the board apparently doesn't like criticism. One person was quoted as saying the foundation would throw in the towel if residents didn't stop complaining about the lack of fundraising. If taxpayer funds of $400,000 weren't involved, perhaps no one would care. Public funds, however, are a concern of the public and open the door to comment.

Bids for the community center expansion came in approximately $2.1 million OVER budget. Douglas E. Barnhart was the low bidder at $8,543,678, and SMC Construction was second lowest at $8,842,562. The third bid was USS Cal Builders at $9,976,000. ******

(Continued on page 5)

(Continued from page 4)

Bombs continue to drop in the Capo school district. At the July 29 board meeting, Trustee Mike Darnold tried to spin it, "We're not in turmoil, we're in transition." The Iragi government is in transition. CUSD's administration is in TURMOIL. ******

Besieged by an attempted recall of all seven

(7)trustees, allegations of malfeasance and criminal acts, discovery of an "Enemies List" of parents supporting the recall and the appearance of Brown Act violations. Supt. James Fleming announced his retirement, effective Aug. 31. On Aug. 7, Trustee Crystal Kochendorfer announced she won't seek reelection, citing "family" issues as the reason for her departure.

Works for us. :-) ******

The Or. Co. Register revealed CUSD paid up to $101 an hour to a contractor who hired Supt. James Fleming's son to work for as a plumber - a giant step up from his job at a Dairy Queen. CUSD Board President Marlene Draper's daughter, Shawna Schaffner, may have received similar special treatment. Schaffer, a vice president at Culbertson, Adams and Associates, has worked on environmental contracts for the district. Draper voted to approve her daughter's contracts. The approved work included a $172,000 contract in December, which was awarded wITHOUT COMPETITIVE BIDS.

What's it like in CUSD's inner sanctum? Despite the appearance of harmony among trustees and 7-0 votes during open sessions, an insider said a typical behind-the-scenes meeting is more like a battleground with streams of profanity. With a few more emplovee resignations and trustees stepping down, perhaps residents will learn what the profanity is all about. Ya think?

